CAR IN DITCH GIRL DROWNS

MISS HELEN DRAGOO VICTIM OF COLORADO ACCIDENT.

COMPANION DIES ALSO

Sandstorm Blamed For Driver's Failure To See Bridge.—Funeral To Be Held Here.

Pinned beneath their car, after it had plunged through the railing of a bridge across an irrigation ditch west of Fort Morgan, Col., Miss Helen Dragoo, daughter of J. O. Dragoo of this city, and Charles McKnight of Fort Morgan, her companion, were drowned to death shortly after midnight Sunday morning.

After crashing through the bridge railing, the car, a roadster, landed wrong side up in the irrigation ditch, which had only five feet of water, according to telegraphic advices from Fort Morgan, the accident was not discovered for an hour and a half, when passing motorists saw the wheels of the roadster sticking above the water and the tail light burning. With difficulty the car was pulled from the stream and the bodies extricated.

Miss Dragoo, who was 22 years old, had been attending Colorado State Teachers College at Greeley since last September. With McKnight, 23, she was on the way from Greeley to Fort Morgan for a week-end visit with Miss Lorene Caudle, a Fort Morgan girl who formerly lived at Hopkins, the former home of the Dragoos.

A sudden sandstorm, which struck with fury, is believed to have blinded McKnight, who did not see the bridge and missed it, striking the railing, which broke, catapulting the car into the water.

The coroner pronounced the accident unavoidable.

Mr. Dragoo and son, Philip, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Glen Gray of Tarkio, an aunt of the young woman, left yesterday morning by automobile for Fort Morgan, expecting to reach there this morning. The body will be brought to Maryville and the funeral will be held probably Wednesday or Thursday at the family home on South Main street. Burial wil be in the family lot at Tarkio.

Miss Lorene Caudle, with whom she planned to spend the week-end, accompanied Miss Dragoo here two weeks ago for a visit and also visited relatives in Hopkins. The young women had been friends from childhood.

Miss Dragoo was graduated from the Hopkins High School in the class of 1922. She attended the State Teachers College in Maryville and taught in a rural school near Tarkio one year and the Hazel Dell school, north of Hopkins, the year following. She would have received her degree from the State Teachers College at Greeley this summer.

Besides her parents, the young woman is survived by one sister, Ruth, at home, two brothers, Philip, Kansas City, and Ralph, at home, and a step sister, Mrs. Virginia Robbins of Maryville.

Miss Dragoo's companion also is known in this section, as he attended Tarkio College at Tarkio for two years. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. McKnight, the father being a farmer near Fort Morgan. He was graduated from high school at Fort Morgan in 1923 and is survived by two brothers and a sister, all younger than himself. His funeral will be held Sunday at the United Presbyterian Church in Fort Morgan.

Council Meets and Orders a Sidewalk

The city council passed an ordinance Saturday, ordering in a four-foot sidewalk on the north side of Thompson street, from Dewey street west, which abutts property owned by Oscar I. Bancroft and Manning Rose.

The present sidewalk was declared unsafe. Bids for the wo.k will be received up until 7:30 p. m. July 6.

The council adjourned until Friday night, when it will hold its regular July session.

Mrs. Sara Robison, Clun Wilson, Miss Betty Turner and Mrs. Alice Wilson and daughter, Helen, motored to Shenandoah, Ia., yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herndon of Parnell motored to Nebraska City, yesterday to spend the day.

Alleged Writer of Bad Check Arrested

Richard Schmidt About To Leave For Kansas, He Tells Sheriff.—He's In Jail Instead.

Richard Schmidt, who gave his address as Maryville, today was in the county jail in default of bond, charged with writing a bogus check. He was arrested by Sheriff L. B. Campbell. He gave a check for $15 on the Jackson Bank of Clearmont to the Ulmer Store on East First street.

Schmidt told the Sheriff he was about to leave for Kansas, but his plans were interrupted when he was registered in the Campbell House.

TIME NARROWS FOR SERVICE MEN'S INSURANCE.

JULY 2 SET AS LIMIT

The final date for renewing government insurance is drawing near and former service men should not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity to secure the cheapest and best insurance of all, Mrs. Fern Crull, executive secretary of the Nodaway County chapter of the American Red Cross, warned today.

July 2 is the last day that war risk insurance can be converted or renewed, according to an order of the government, and all ex-service men are being urged to take immediate action in regard to their policies.

Private insurance corporations, as well as government bureaus and agencies, together with the American Legion, are urging the former service men to take advantage of this insurance opportunity, which is probably unequaled and never will be equaled again, according to officials.

Applications for taking the insurance can be obtained from Mrs. Crull in the City Hall offices or from the Veterans Bureau direct. Applications must be made before July 2.

Many ex-service men have let their war risk insurance lapse since the war, it was learned, but these policies can be renewed if the veterans will make application before the final date next month.

White Funeral Rites Set for Wednesday

Resident Of County For Twenty Years Dies Saturday At Home, Seven Miles West Of Here.

David H. White, a resident of Nodaway County since 1907, died at his home, seven miles west of Maryville, at 9 o'clock Saturday night.

The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist Church in Maryville conducted by the Rev. W. S. Woodhull. The body will lie in state at the church from 12 to 1 o'clock Wednesday noon. Burial will be in a cemetery near Shambaugh, Ia.

Had he survived until July 1, Mr. White would have been 71 years old. He was born in Warren County, Ill. He came to Iowa in 1877, and in 1907 came to Nodaway County, locating on the farm where his death occurred. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when a young man and his membership was with Wesley Chapel near his home.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lottie Dutton, St. Louis, Mich.; Mrs. Clara Parker, Omaha; Mrs. Orpha Spittler, Hamburg, Ia.; and Mrs. Harve Booth, Maryville; and two sons, Ralph and Raleigh White, both of Maryville. He also leaves three sisters.

Dog Bites Child, 7; Infection Develops

Erma Walker, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Maryville, who is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray Wiseman, near Burlington Junction, was bitten twice on the left leg Friday by a dog which jumped at her as she was passing.

No symptoms of hydrophobia have been noted, but the child is confined to her bed from an infection from the bite.

Mrs. C. C. James, her daughter, Miss Lillian James, and her grandson, Jimmie Sickels of Enid, Okla., returned to Cameron this afternoon after a short visit with her daughter, Miss Minnie B. James.

FR. ANSELM DIES TODAY

RESIDENT OF MARYVILLE SINCE 1880.

FOUNDER OF HOSPITAL

Body to Lie in State From 2 to 5 p. M. Tomorrow at St. Francis; Successor Named.

The Rev. Father Anselm Ineichen, 74 years old, one of Northwest Missouri's best loved men, and one of the founders of St. Francis Hospital here, died shortly before noon today at the Hospital, where he was resident chaplain.

Father Anselm, as he was familiarly known, was born in Ferren, Canton Lucerne, Switzerland, May 25, 1853, and lived on the paternal farm until he was 16 years old. Actuated by an ambition to do something for his fellowmen, he entered the Benedictine Monastery at Encilberg, Switzerland, where he remained until 1873.

Father Anselm was the oldest of six children, all of whom are dead except one brother and one sister, both living in Switzerland.

One sister, Sister Georgia, a nun at Clyde, died there in 1910. She was a noted musician.

Believing that the United States offered a wider field for his labors, he came to this country Oct. 1, 1873, and took a four-years preparatory course for the priesthood at Conception, and he was first ordained priest on September 29, 1877, by Bishop Hogan of St. Joseph diocese. The following day he celebrated his first mass in Conception, being an assistant under Abbot Frowin Conrad, O. S. B., of the monastery.

To Maryville in 1880.

In January, 1880, he was assigned as assistant to Father Adelhelm of St. Mary's Church of Maryville, in which capacity he remained until June 3, 1881, when he was appointed pastor of St. Mary's Church, serving as pastor there thirty-two years.

In 1913 Father Anselm was sent as a delegate to the general Chapter of the Benedictine Order held in Rome, and while in Rome he had an audience with Pope Leo. On his return from this trip he visited his old home in Lucerne.

Father Pius, 79 years old, will succeed Father Anslem as resident Chaplain at the Hospital. Father Pius has been at the St. Francis here since Father Anselm became incapacitated. He and Father Anslem came from Switzerland together.

Father Anselm professed as a Benedictine, January 1, 1875, and celebrated his golden jubilee as a Benedictine two years ago. He was ordained into the priesthood on September 29, 1877. Had he lived three more months he would have served as a priest for 50 years.

After his ordination Father Anselm served for three years as assistant to Abbot Frowin in parochial work in different places, mainly at Conception.

Built St. Mary's Church.

When Father Anselm came to Maryville, the foundation for St. Mary's Church was being laid and he directed the building of the church in 1887.

During his first four years in the pastorate, he looked after all Catholics in the western half of Nodaway County and as far south as Savannah. He built the first Catholic Church in Burlington Junction. It is known as St. Benedict's.

He was active in all community movements and activities and was a talented musician.

In 1884 he was instrumental in bringing the Francisan sisters from St. Louis, in order to start the St. Francis Hospital. He has been their counsellor and chaplain from then until now. He was a vital factor in starting the hospital here and under his direction this was made the mother house for hospitals at Hannibal, Nebraska City and one at Oklahoma City, which is now larger than the hospital here.

The body of Father Anselm will lie in state in the reception room in the hospital here from 2 to 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Requiem High Mass will be said at the hospital at 6 o'clock, Wednesday morning.

The body will be taken to the church for Solemn Requiem High Mass at 9 o'clock, Wednesday morning. Following this service the body will be taken to Conception, where funeral services and burial will be held Thursday morning.

Trains Not to Be Changed, After All

Latest Information Has It That New Time Card on July 10 will Not Affect Wabash Here.

In spite of rumors to the contrary, no changes will be made in the time of the arrival and departure of Wabash passenger trains on this line, according to information received here today. An investigation had been made, it was said, with a view to improving service if possible, but the present schedule was declared to be "satisfactory as a whole."

A new Wabash time card will go into effect July 19, but it will affect only trains on the main lines from Kansas City to St. Louis.

The change most persistently rumored here was to have the evening passenger train No. 3 run through to Omaha instead of stopping here over night.

LAMKIN TO GO TO BIG MEET

ALSO ON COMMITTEE

Two Other Addresses to Be Made at Seattle by Maryville Educator, One by Radio.

Dr. Uel W. Lamkin, president of the State Teachers College, will leave tonight for Seattle, Wash., where he will attend the annual convention of the National Education Association from July 3 to 8. This is the sixty-fifth annual meeting of the organization, the greatest of its kind in the world.

Dr. Lamkin will deliver three addresses in connection with the convention. He will speak on Tuesday, July 5, before the general session on the subject, "The Teacher and the Community." Later in the meeting he will speak on relations of state and national associations before the association of state secretaries.

Twenty-five nationally known educators have been secured to deliver 10-minute radio addresses during the convention, and Dr. Lamkin is one of these. He will speak on "America's Debt to the Teacher."

Dr. Lamkin is a member of the executive committee of the N. E. A. This committee is considering now a plan for a retirement allowance for the headquarters staff of the N. E. A., at Washington. Some 250 persons are on this staff. The committee meets Friday, making it necessary for Mr. Lamkin to leave early.

Last year the National Education Association met in Philadelphia. It was at this time that Dr. Lamkin was defeated for the presidency of the educational body by a narrow margin. He would consent to no campaign in advance for the office, and his race was outstanding in the history of the association.

This year a woman will be elected to the presidency, as it is customary to alternate between the sexes for the high office.

Mr. Lamkin will return to Maryville in about two weeks.

Band Concert to Be Given Thursday Night

Event Is Postponed From Wednesday Because of Harp Recital by Alberto Salvi.

The band concert by the State Teachers College band will be held Thursday evening this week instead of Wednesday evening. The time was changed on account of the concert to be given at the College Wednesday evening by Alberto Salvi, considered the world's greatest concert harpist.

The concert Thursday night will be at the bandstand in the courthouse yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Gaugh, their son, William, and daughter, Helen, returned last night from Kansas City where they had been visiting Mrs. Gaugh's brothers, Fred and Walter Hale, and their families, since Friday. With Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neal, they spent part of last wek at Lake Okoboji, Ia.

PLANES BEGIN NATION TOUR

TO VISIT 24 CITIES

4,000 Mile Journey Begins at 10 a. m. —Trip to Stimulate Interest Among Airplane Makers.

Ford Airport, Detroit, June 27.—Twenty-five of America's latest commercial airplanes started the 4,000 mile National Air Tour at ten o'clock this morning.

A dozen other planes, not competing for the $12,500 prize money and for the Edsel Ford trophy, joined the contestants. It is the third running of the Tour, previously known as the Annual Commercial Airplane Reliability Tour.

Twenty-four cities will be visited by the fliers, who are rated not so much on speed as reliability and efficiency. The tour ends here July 12.

The planes go east, to Boston, double back by New York and Baltimore, head into the middle west as far south as Dallas, Tex., and then proceed to Chicago.

This trip was taken by the sponsors of the tour primarily to stimulate interest among eastern manufacturers in airplane and airline work.

Southern Tour Abandoned.

It has been intended to cover the South, the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama, but because of unestablished routes and lack of accommodating fields, this feature has been curtailed until probably 1929. It is understood the tour will go to the Pacific Coast next year.

The first tour, which was similar to the old "Glidden Tours" of automobile pioneering days, saw 16 planes entered. It covered only 1,900 miles and had 16 starters. Fifteen of them completed the trip.

Next year, 1926, 24 planes started, 19 fininshing, and 13 cities were visited during a trip of 2,553 miles.

The idea of the tour is to give manufacturers an opportunity to view the planes in group competition. It also acts as a demonstrator of aeronautical progress.

To qualify, a plane must have a speed greater than 80 miles an hour, but is not required to average more than 85 percent of its top speed. It must carry one-half pound pay load in passengers or ballast for every cubic inch of engine piston displacement, in addition to pilot and fuel.

Additional Load Adds Points

Additional load will add points to a contestant's final score. A take-off and landing contest was held before the planes left and will play a good part in the final score. Contestants requiring the shorter distance to get up and stop when they come down, have an advantage in scoring.

Adoption of the wheel brakes on planes came as a consequence of this feature last year. Practically all planes this year have the wheel brakes.

First place pays a prize of $2,500 in cash, and other finishers down to tenth place get prizes of $300 in addition to $200 for each contestant who completes the tour.

While the Detroit Board of Commerce sponsors the Tour, The Navy and Army Departments, National Aeronautic Association, Detroit Aviation Society, Detroit Flying Club and the Department of Commerce have co-operated.

Ray Cooper of the Detroit Board of Commerce has acted as General Manager, while a committee of 35 men, headed by Frank W. Blair, chairman and Edward S. Evans, vice Chairman, has aided.

Edsel Ford Donates Cup.

Edsel Ford donated a handsome cup, reputed to worth $25,000 ,to go permanently to the manufacturer winning the tour three consecutive times. The Travel Air Manufacturing Company of Wichita, Kans., won the event twice but is not participating this year.

Clyde Man and Baby Undergo Operations

Fay Blanton, seven weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blanton of Clyde, underwent an operation at St. Francis Hospital this afternoon for a mastoid in the right ear. The condition of the baby was reported satisfactorily late this afternoon.

CHARGE SOLON WITH ISSUING 6 BAD CHECKS

Representative R. W. McClendon Of Douglas County Accused Of Forgery—Prominent Among Young Republicans.

Springfield, Mo., June 27.—Charges of forgery in connection with the issuance of six worthless checks are pending here against Ralph W. McClendon, 27, Douglas county representative in the state legislature.

McClendon is alleged to have issued checks ranging in amount from $10 to $25 to business houses here. He held a position in the office of the state auditor recently and has been identified with activities of the Young Republicans of Missouri for some time.

FIRM "NO" ON BATTLESHIPS

U. S. DELEGATION AT GENEVA GETS INSTRUCTIONS.

DENY BRITISH REQUEST

Americans Also Will Stand Pat on 5-5-3 Ration Plan for All Classes of War Craft.

Washington, June 27.—Secretary of State Kellogg has ordered the American delegation at the Geneva Tri-Power Naval Conference to refuse to discuss capital ships, already disposed of by the Washington treaty of 1921.

Kellogg's order was in reply to a British request, which Ambassador Hugh Gibson, chief American delegate, forwarded to Washington.

The Washington government holds discussion by the Geneva conference of the British capital ships proposal is impossible because:

1. The Washington treaty can be modified only by the five signatory power, including France and Italy, who are not members of the Geneva meeting. A revision conference for capital ships is provided by the Washington treaty for 1931.

2. In calling the Geneva conference, President Coolidge limited it to a discussion of auxiliary craft, namely cruisers, destroyers and submarines.

Gibson was also told by Kellogg to stand by the American 5-5-3 ratio plan, giving this country equality with Great Britain in all ship classes.

A dispatch from Tokyo had said Japan desires to defer discussion of battleships until the status of auxiliary craft—cruisers, destroyers and submarines—to discuss which the conference was called, has been settled.

Japanese circles today amplified and somewhat corrected the dispatch by intimating that they were willing to discuss battleships because, as the British had argued, it would result in decreasing taxation. They believed the question could be brought with in the conference scope.

WEATHER FOR FLIGHT GOOD

TWO PLANES PREPARING FOR PACIFIC HOP TODAY.

BYRD AGAIN DELAYED

Forecaster Says Condition Bad For Atlantic Flight—Cross Country Plane Service Possible August 1.

San Francisco, June 27.—Ideal weather conditions prevail over the Pacific for attempting flights within the next twenty-four hours, the Weather Bureau said today.

Conditions will be more favorable for a flight westward than for a flight from the Islands to the Mainland, according to predictions.

One Or Two Flights Today.

Air Port, San Leandro Bay, Calif., June 27.—One or two transpacific flight attempts may start from here today.

When word was flashed to the Oakland field that the Fokker Army monoplane of Lieut. Lester J. Maitland and Albert F. Hegenberger was en route here from Crissey field, work was speeded at the camp of Ernest J. Smith, air mail pilot.

"It looks like today will be the time to start," was the word from the Smith camp.

Byrd Postpones Again.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., June 27.—The start of the transatlantic flight of the monoplane America today was indefinitely postponed until Wednesday.

Commander Richard E. Byrd announced after a conference with James Kimball, weather forecaster, that unfavorable winds from here to Newfoundland and a large storm area, stretching across the ocean from Newfoundland nearly to Ireland, would prevent a take-off tomorrow.

All three motors on the plane were tested today and found to be in perfect condition.

May Start Service Aug. 1.

San Francisco, June 27.—Passenger air service between San Francisco and New York may be inaugurated after August 1, it was indicated here today by W. G. Herron, vice-president of the Boenning Air Transport Co. at Seattle.

Texas County Hunts a Daring "Fire-Bug"

Thought to Have Destroyed Farm Buildings of Alex Wheeler—Successful in Second Attempt.

Houston, Mo., June 27.—Officials of Texas county have been asked to aid in the search for a "fire bug" whose activities have alarmed residents near here.

Buildings on the farm of Alex Wheeler, near here, last night, marked the second time an attempt has been made to burn the Wheeler property.

Every building was destroyed last night, members of the Wheeler family barely escaping with their lives. A few weeks ago an attempt was made to burn their home but the fire was checked before it did much damage.

Fifth Regiment to Stay in Nicaragua

Washington, June 27.—The Fifth Regiment of Marines, with other auxiliary forces, was designated today by the Navy department to remain in Nicaragua after forthcoming removal of half the 3,000 garrison to San Diego, Quantico and Haiti.

The Fifth, formerly stationed at Quantico, will probably be in the southern republic for more than a year.

Mr. and Mrs. James Blagg and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Burrus and children of Sioux City, Ia., were guests yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blagg, near Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Combs and Mrs. Combs' father, Ernest Blaeketer, of Maryville spent Sunday night with Mrs. Combs' aunt, Mrs. Charles Baro and Mrs. Ethel Luther of Arkoe.

Weather

Generally fair and warmer tonight; Tuesday unsettled, probably local thunder storms followed by cooler temperatures.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

To the queer little South American town of PORTO VERDE, in west central Brazil, a town fringed by dark, forbidding jungle, comes an elderly American, LINCOLN NUNNALLY, a chemist.

Nunnally, registers at the ramshackle hotel and steps out on the balcony. A beautiful young girl drives past in a chaise, accompanied by a negro woman and a small child. To the American's amazement, she waves to him, then drives on. He sees two sinister looking men watch the girl, exchange mysterious signals, then follow her.

Another surprise is in store for him. In the barber shop, the barber, a strange dark man with an Oriental cast to his eyes, speaks to him. He then recognizes the barber as VILAKA WEST, known to him as VILAK, a fellow American and former chemistry pupil. He asks Vilak what he is doing in Porto Verde. To his amazement, Vilak says he has sent for him, that he and his cousin, who was the young lady Nunnally had seen from the balcony, owned the Porto Verde Development Co., and were in need of some assistance in getting at the root of a mystery that had already cost several lives and threatened their own.

The barber business, Vilak explains serves to conceal his real activities. In the midst of his explanation, word reaches him that another man has been murdered, and he and Nunnally hasten to the spot where the victim, TONY BARBETTA, one of his cousin's foremen, lies on the ground, still alive.

Barbetta seems to be in a strange sort of paralysis. He dies, after accusing Potts, and Vilak astonishes Nunnally by declaring his belief that Potts was not the murderer.

Another man is killed, TONY BARBETTA, one of Elise's foremen. Before he dies, he accuses one LIMEY POTTS of murdering him. Potts admits striking him with a club, but pleads self-defense. Vilak later astonishes Nunnally by saying Limey Potts did not commit the murder. He is silent as to his theory and asks Nunnally to accompany him on a nocturnal visit to the ranch of GAYLORD PRENTISS, a mysterious and forbidding man, known to be an enemy of Elise Marberry. Vilak insists that they wear raincoats, though the night is cloudless.

NOW BEGIN THE STORY

CHAPTER 6

In a few moments Nunnally and Vidak were riding slowly up the road, their shadows dancing fantastically before them on the gray mud. Their course for the first mile lay over the highway they had taken in the afternoon. They crossed the bridge over the river, which was swirling hungrily between its low banks along which ran the railroad.

"River's getting high," said Vilak, looking down as he crossed it. "If it keeps on rising like this in the mountains, we'll have a bad flood. They have them twice a year here, but this season there's been much more rain than usual and a few of the inhabitants are getting worried. An English company has a big dam about twenty miles up the river, which they built to develop waterpower for the mines opening up in that section and everyone is certain the dam will let go some day.

"A similar dam broke about four years ago and killed two or three hunply of water, for there's mighty little falls in the dry season. It's necessary but it makes things a bit dangerous in an over-wet season like this. However, never life without danger. There's a man up in that tree, aiming a pistol at us, I think," he added, without changing the inflection of his voice. "Pull back behind that bridge timber."

The chemist obeyed. Vilak leaned over in his saddle, snatched up a sharp rock from the roadway and hurled it at the lower branch of the tree he had indicated just at the end of the bridge. There was a sharp cry, then a crash in the brush.

"Who was it? Er . . . Who? who?" The old man panted excitedly.

Vilak placidly brushed the mud from his finger. "Nothing to be alarmed about. Just the common garden variety of holdup man, I think. After you've been down in this part of the country a while you'll take it as naturally as your meals. The end of the bridge is one of their favorite places. They wait up there in the trees, point their revolvers at you without being dred people. A lot of water about here, as you've probably noticed. A lot of little lakes which have been dammed up in recent years to give a steady supseen and shout down to you to throw your money into the road. Then after you're gone, they come down and get it. An easy and almost infallibly safe method, for, not being visible, their victims have no chance of resistnce.

"Oh, they don't take chances, these brave young bloods. A great improvement over the American method. In about another half a second we would have heard the Brazilian equivalent of 'hands up,' and if you were a good scared Indian you would have thrown everything you had in your pockets onto the road and run like mad. Either it was one of these thieving gentry or someone who wanted to kill me for reasons ard motives unknown."

The chemist, his little body taut on his horse, stared blankly in the direction of the crashing brush. "Er . . . . why didn't you shoot at him? And why are you not pursuing him now . . . . yes . . . . pursuing?"

"I didn't shoot at him because a rock serves the purpose amply and I don't kill unless I have to. I'm not pursuing him because we've much more need of every bit of energy we have, and we'd only be wasting it on a fruitless chase which would come to

Graham	1	3	.250
Bolckow	0	4	.000

Assuming a handicap of three games lost and no victories and with a team "picked up" Saturday night, Bolckow yesterday entered the Nodaway County League in Rosendale's place. So Bolckow cannot be criticized for losing to Pickering, 1 to 20. It was announced today that in all probability Bolckow will become a permanent member of the League.

A meeting of the county league managers will be called this week to iron out the situation—caused by Rosendale defaulting after the season had advanced three games, notifying the officials of their decision to drop out on the eve of the fourth game.

Barnard Wins By Rally.

A ninth inning rally netted Barnard four runs to win its 8-6 victory over the Burlington Junction baseball nine on the Burlington diamond. Barnard thereby clung to first place in the league standing.

Barnard and Burlington were tied, 3-all until the seventh inning, when DaVault crossed the plate to place Burlington in the lead, only to have Barnard tie the score in the 8th and then come back in the ninth to win by a margin of two scores. Beaver of Burlington Junction knocked a homer in the ninth for the last score of the game. Buckridge was forced out in the fifth inning with a badly injured ankle. Yates, a young relief hurler, pitched a fine game after taking Buckridge's place on the mound in the fifth.

Pickering in Second.

Pickering took undisputed possession of second place by the easy victory over Bolckow. The Pickering team batted around in the first inning. Although E. Duke was "touched" for eighteen hits, the support he received was erratic, accounting for several of the Pickering runs. He fanned eight Pickering men to the five struck out by Gumm.

Graham Wins Its First

Graham won a fast and furious game to break into the win column, defeating Quitman, 4 to 3, on the Graham grounds.

Summers the home team's hurler was in enviable form, striking out thirteen batters and allowing only five hits. He also won his own game with a two-base hit to bring in the winning run in the last half of the ninth and break a 3-3 tie.

Laughlin of Quitman also pitched a good game, striking out ten opponents and allowing only six hits, but his support was weak in the third inning and Graham took advantage of the breaks.

Two Cars Crash on Road to Burlington

One Driven by W. S. Spratt Turns Over, Damaging Machine, but Occupants Escape Serious Injury.

W. S. Spratt, Mrs. Lucy Vulgamott and Enos Fast of Burlington Junction were driving toward Maryville in a touring car on the Burlington Junction-Wilcox road near Burlington Junction about one o'clock this afternoon, when a car driven by Mr. Bloomfield, a grandson of Mrs. Vulgamott, approaching from the south, struck the car driven by Mr. Spratt and the Spratt car turned over. No injuries other than a general shaking up and a few bruises were discovered by the passengers. The top, fenders and a wheel on the Spratt car were broken. The car driven by Mr. Bloomfield was not damaged. A high bank kept the driver from seeing the Sprat car as it approached.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Honer of St. Joseph spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Honer and family.

BOYISH GARB GETS GIRLS IN TOILS OF LAW

Officers Stop Trio After Swimming Party, But a Grieved Father Fails to Identify Them.

Three girls, two from Braddyville and a Maryville lass, were driving around the square Saturday evening, pleasure bent.

But they were rudely halted. Officers of the law—two of them—jumped on their car, one on each side.

No, they weren't speeding, or violating any law or city ordinance. They were "wanted." The officers hailed them to a corner of the square where they were "held for questioning."

It was all because one was wearing overalls and another was attired in men's trousers. They said they had "been swimming."

An elderly gentleman stepped up from one of the iron benches, and peered at the girls. The officers asked them if he was father of any or all of them. "We don't claim him," they said.

"Lemme look again," the man said. But he decided they were "no kin of his."

Two of the girls were Bessie Maude Murray of Maryville and Armina Wilson of Braddyville. Officers didn't know the name of the other.

The man, a Mr. Culp, who the officers said was from Mound City or Oregon, was looking for his daughter. The officers here were told she left home attired in boy's clothing. Culp told them his daughter was about 14 years of age, and a "dark eyed, black haired Susan." She had not been found up to this afternoon.

It was reported that a few days ago a man by the name of Culp, from Tarkio, was inquiring for his daughter, named Dorothy, who came to Maryville and changed her name to Hall. She left here and had been seen recently in St. Joseph, it was said.

What Makes Some Stores "Homey"?

The old Country Store with its ancient crackerbarrel and potbellied stove is fast disappearing from our midst, and there are many to mourn its passing. While its methods often lacked efficiency yet it played an honorable part in the history of our country and many a cooly aloof modern establishment could study its ways to advantage.

A quarter of a century ago the J. C. Penney Company was only a country store itself—the kind where homefolks buy. Today, although we have grown to lusty manhood, we are striving constantly to preserve that spirit of neighborliness and to demonstrate our friendship by the freshness and variety of our stocks, their high quality, the truthfulness of our advertising, and the large amount of value we give for your dollar.

All honor to the Country Store of Yesterday. It had a big job to do and it did it courageously and well. May we who follow in its footsteps preserve faithfully the tradition of service it has handed down.

STANBERRY LOSES SLUGGING MATCH By 12-10 SCORE.

LOCALS GET 16 HITS

One Mr. Bosch, who has pitched Stanberry to seven straight victories, couldn't get his spark under control or was not timed right yesterday. He started pitching duties for the League leaders here yesterday, against a team he considered "the lowly Comets," and was knocked so far out of the box the Red Sox hid him behind the grandstand after the fourth inning.

Hats are off today to Manager Brennan and Captain Arthur. And to Buhler, the winning pitcher. And, the rest of the aggregation who composed the first team to conquer the chesty Red Sox—12 to 10.

Yes, the score was "kinda close," but the shock of so many hits off the Maryville bats nearly gave the fans convulsions. Buhler again found some difficulty in finding the rubber, walking six, but he counteracted this with eleven strikeouts, besides bringing in a run.

Every Comet scored yesterday, Arthur and Brennan sharing the glories with two each. The captain came into his own to clout a three-bagger and a double. Lewis, Schultz, Brennan and Search were other Comets to biff out two-sackers.

The game was started off with Stanberry going stronger than horseradish scoring four runs in the opening frame. P. Besinger got a single and R. Dix and Laughlin walked. Besinger was put out trying to slide home. J. Dix and Turnipseed then got on base and four runs were tallied before Bosch went out, Buhler to Brennan and Weiderholt died, Carmichael to Brennan.

Comets Make Eight.

The horrible horrors for Stanberry commenced the second time the Comets got to bat. The entire nine batted around, and then some—scoring eight times.

It was a terrible stimulant and Manager Brennan feared the boys might take an overdose, so advised an easing up.

The next inning went along fairly peacefully with no scores. But in the third, Captain Arthur, first man up, drove out a triple, signifying it had to be three runs or nothing. So the Comets took the hint.

Meanwhile "Heinie" was pitching pretty steady ball. A triple by J. Dix in the sixth caused a single tally. Laughlin was pitching then for Stanberry, having gone slowly to the mound in the fifth, wondering what the onslaught would be like. However, the eleven scores seemed to satisfy the local sluggers, and they eased up until the eighth, when Search, who had been playing a whale of a game in left field, suggested he should have a run, as it wasn't fair to leave him out. The Comets agreed an even number would look better, so Search—you know him, the fellow who played football on Shorty Lawrence's team and wears a Charlie Chaplin mustache—raped out a double and scored by Schultz's sacrifice. Speaking of Search, about the middle of the game he made a sensational running one-handed catch of a low liner.

The Red Sox got pretty desperate and tried a rally in the ninth, which fell short by two runs, so the Locals called it a day without going to bat.

Come again Stanberry—when you feel the same way.

It was Nodaway County Day in the Northwest Missouri baseball league yesterday, both Maryville and Hopkins emerging victors in their games. The results did not change the league leaders trip, but they put Hopkins in a tie for second place in the percentage column, only one game behind Stanberry.

Hopkins has a good chance to give Stanberry and Union Star a run for the lead, due to a decision made yesterday among the league managers. It was decided to play a full 24-game season without the split season of twelve games each. The announcement was made this morning by John Sewell of Maryville, president of the League, and H. E. Gooden of Stanberry, secretary.

The decision was rather a blow to the Maryville team, which got off to a poor start, but the exhibition yesterday, in which Stanberry was knocked hither and yonder, gave rise to hopes that Maryville has a team to be feared and one which may yet climb near the top.

Local fans have felt all along that the Comets were the best players in the league, but have found difficulty in getting a machine to work in unison.

The stock of Bethany, under the leadership of Babe Adams, also took a rise. Adams' proteges defeated Union Star, which has been hitting a lively clip.

Hopkins, although outhit, played a heady game to defeat King City, 9 to 4, taking advantage of the six King City errors.

The brief summaries of the Northwest Missouri League games yesterday:

Maryville, 12 runs, 16 hits, 3 errors.
Stanberry, 10 runs, 8 hits, 4 errors.
Buhler and Carmicahel for Maryville; Bosch, Laughlin and J. Dix for Stanberry.

Hopkins, 9 runs, 11 hits, 2 errors.
King City, 4 runs, 14 hits, 6 errors.
Thorburn and Reder for Hopkins; Wampler, Thompson and Harvey for King City.

Gentry, 6 runs, 11 hits, 1 error.
Albany, 1 run, 7 hits, 1 error.
Lisle and Summa for Gentry; Shoemaker and Mason for Albany.

Uunion Star, 3 runs, 4 hits, 2 errors.
Bethany, 8 runs, 9 hits, one error.
Hiatt and Turpin for Bethany; Gottschall, Holland, and Huffman for Union Star.

George Robb Ellison, of Jefferson City, commissioner of the supreme court, visited in Maryville yesterday and today with his parents, Judge and Mrs. W. C. Ellison.

Dr. H. L. Stinson and Dr. Frank C. Wallis returned Sunday from a two weeks' trip to California. Dr. Stinson visited his mother, Mrs. N. B. Haney, at Long Beach, Cal.

Jungle Breath

nothing. I know these jungles too well.

"That man's an eighth of a mile from here now and safe as if he were a thousand. If he's a thief, the police will get him—maybe. Theft's punished worse than murder here anyway. If he's one of my particular friends, then undoubtedly we'll meet him again. Concentration, mon cher, is the best strategy. Stick to the main road. Or as an esteemed pugilist, who was once one of by intimates, told me, don't guard your chin and thereby expose your solar plexus."

Their horses stepped from the bridge onto the road. A quarter of a mile farther on, the men saw two dark figures shrouded in the bushes. As the riders neared them, they began to move farther back into the obscurity, but at a cordial salutation from Vilak, halted. Nunnally saw the gleam of knives, then recognized the faces of Pasquale Branza of the patched cheek and enormous Adam's apple and the one-armed Detto Cicerone of the broken teeth, the two men he had seen stealing off after Elise in the afternoon.

They grinned at Vilak amiably, the grin making the gaping hole that marked Cicerone's mouth wider than ever, for the figure of Attorney Davis was often seen at night on the road that led to the Marberry fazenda. But even the chemist, unskilled as he was in the study of human emotions, could detect a distinct uneasiness in their faces. "Buona sera, amici." Vilak said smilingly. "A beautiful night,, is it not so?"

"Si, Meester Davis, si, si," Cicerone, the more active of the two, lisped quickly between his broken teeth. "The night ees ver' beautiful. The moon she beautiful like when she shine on sea at Napoli."

"You stand here and watch the moon?"

"Si, si, Meester Davis," they chorused anxiously.

Vilak casually offered them cigarets. "Take care, my friends. The jaguar likes to strike in the moon. Is it not so? Buona sera."

The two men eagerly tipped their hats. Vilak and the chemist took the road again. They passed a clump of trees set far back from the highway. Vilak called his companion's attention to it. "That's where Attorney Davis lives," he said. "I have a room at Elise's, too, that I use when I need it. A short distance farther they reached a wide gateway under two castanho trees. It was the entrance to the Marberry fazenda. They rode through and a few moments later reached a low building of white stucco surrounded on all sides by long, carefully screened verandas.

Elise Marberry came forward to meet them. The chemist had no difficulty in recognizing her as the black-haired young woman who had thrown a kiss to him from her carriage in the afternoon. Then she had been dressed in gray; now she wore a gown of yellow silk, embroidered with jade green which outrivaled in brilliancy the flaming colored macaw which they could see standing on a perch inside the door. Around her supple neck, and hanging down upon her dress, was a heavy hand-wrought silver chain.

"Well, here you two are at last," she said as she took the old man's hand and squeezed it vigorously, without waiting for the formality of Vilak's introduction. "It's a shame the way we've treated you. A crying shame. But it's all the fault of this wretch of a cousin of mine. He insists on dragging you to this place that only mad creatures like myself inhabit; he won't let anyone meet you at the wharf, because he wanted to have you stumble against him as though by accident; then when you are here, he won't permit you to stay on my fazenda where I could see that you were comfortable, but insists that you live in that filthy den he calls a hotel. Good evening, my Lord Dictator," she said, turning to him suddenly.

"Not a dictator, only sensible," he retorted as they made their way to a gay low-ceilinged interior. "Which unfortunately is a virtue most women don't possess."

"You're undoubtedly a dictator." She invited them to sit down on a bright striped divan. "The only reason I pay any attention to you is because you're a criminologist and not many families possess one."

She began toying with a fan made of irridescent green feathers which brought out all the beauty of her dark skin. "But even your tyranical orders couldn't keep me from saying hello to Mr. Nunnally, at least."

She turned to the old man again. "You see I go to meet the boat every week when it comes in. It's the one luxury I permit myself. Really a lot of fun. Everybody does it, you know, back in the little towns in the States." She smiled at him radiantly. "I'm really awfully glad to meet you. I've heard so much about you from Vilak. And I'll be terribly grateful if you can run out some day and look at those manganese deposits and tell us if they're worth anything. Though frankly, I never would have permitted you to come if Vilak hadn't insisted so vigorously. It's my job to stay here because my property's here. But I don't think it's quite fair to drag you into it."

The old man hastened to reassure her. "Vilak was quite right in sending for me. It's different . . . er . . . different, yes. But I am . . . . er . . . enjoying it."

Vilak arose from the divan, went over to a table at the other end of the room on which lay a few American and Spanish magazines and glanced at his cousin sharply. "Something's happened in the house. Late this afternoon," he said suddenly. "What was it? Come. Out with the truth."

A puzzling theft has been committed and again Elise Marberry is implored to leave Porto Verde, where danger seems to lurk in every shadow.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, June 27.—Following the lead of the corn market and attracting a broader general interest, the price of wheat gained over the previous close in midseason trading. The market was ½ to 1 cent higher.

Corn provided the impetus for an improved market, carrying the price of other grains up with its increase. The cash market was 1½ cents higher today.

Oats were without distinctive news, following the lead of corn. The cash market was up ½ cent.

Provisions declined in early trading but steadied later, rising to 5 cents higher.

FIRST ROUND NOT FINISHED

SEVERAL MATCHES YET TO BE PLAYED IN GOLF TOURNEY.

EXTRA HOLE FOR TWO

Gillam Wins From Lawrence And Braniger From Howland In Play-Offs. —Closes July 4.

Although Sunday afternoon provided excellent golf weather, only a few members of the Country Club, paired in the President's tournament, took advantage of the opportunity to clean up the first round matches. Only seven matches were recorded in the three flights.

The tournament must close the evening of July Fourth.

In Class A, Forrest T. Gillam defeated H. Frank Lawrence after a gruelling ten-hole match, Gillam winning, one up. Frank C. Miller was defeated by L. M. Eck, the pedagogue winning 3 up and 2 to play. Dr. H. S. Dowell had a hard fight to defeat M. S. ("Bud") Hamilton, one up.

Two first round matches remain to be played, Phares against Meyers, and Vogt Against Costello. Gillam will play the winner of the Phares-Meyers match while O. M. Watkins will take on the winner of the Vogt-Costello match. Condon and Bovard are paired for the second round and Jones will play Eek to decide who goes into the semi-finals. Dr. Dowell drew a bye.

F. W. Crow defeated W. A. Rickenbrode, 2 up, in the first round of the class B flight. Roy Curfman defeated C. F. Remus, 3 up, in the first round, and then defeated Crow, 2 up, in the second round. Other first round matches in the same class:

E. L. Townsend defeated H. J. Beedle of Ravenwood 4 up and 3 to play, while W. A. Conn won from I. A. Goodson, one up, in a strictly Ravenwood affair.

In Class C Eldon Irvin was eliminated by Clun Price 3 up and 2 to play, and Dr. Earl Braniger defeated Dale Howland, one up, in another ten-hole match.

Progress Good in Pickering Revival

Services in Tent Largely Attended Yesterday.—Tomorrow to Be "Parents' Night."

The tent revival meetings being conducted at Pickering by Evangelist Hankins are reported making "fine progress," with large crowds attending and a good response to the evangelist's appeals. The attendance was especially large and interest close yesterday, when the Reverend Mr. Hankins preached on "The Signs of the Times."

Special music was given by a large chorus under the leadership of Prof. Frank Washburn. A number of out-of-town persons who knew either Mr. Hankins or Mr. Washburn were present at yesterday's services.

An excellent program is planned for the week as follows:

Monday night—Subject of the sermon, "The Bible the Greatest Trilogy."

Tuesday night—"Parents' Night."

Wednesday night—"Young People's Night."

Thursday night—"Guest Night." The pastor of the Christian church and his congregation will be the guests on this occasion.

Friday night—"Methodist Night."

Saturday night—"Farmers Night."

For next Sunday, July 3, the following program has been arranged:

Sunday school—Rally at 10 a. m.

Sermon by Evangelist Hankins, 11 a. m.; subject, "A Day's Journey." Basket dinner, lecture sermon, 2:30, "The Unpardonable Sin." Sermon 8 p. m., subject, "Slime Pits."

"The people for miles around are cordially invited to all the above services," says the Rev. H. A. Doughty, pastor of the Pickering church.
